Can any other suburb of Washington offer you the same or equal rapid transit faci ities? Lots are selling rapidly in this property. The prices are low and within reach of all.

As an investment, it needs only an investigation to niles of Washington. The view is grand, taking in the entire city and Potomac river. A number of Washington's leading people and government employes have purchased property in Fort Meyer Heights and all speak of it in the highest terms.

If you are looking for a good speculation we invite you to inspect the property. All streets are being graveled. Cheap building stone on property. Several cottages now being built. An all-year-round suburb.

the prisoners were charged with false pretenses. The passengers charged that they obtained money under false pretenses by pretending to sell genuine passes when in fact the passes were not genuine.

In the cases of the general complimentary passes it is charged that the scalpers told the customers to tell the conductor, if the latter questioned them, that they got the passes from a personal friend of Manager Odell.

Detective Carter assisted in the investigation today. The persons arrested were the only ones who could be found doing the business for which they were arrested, although it is known that others were implicated in the affair and other arrests are likely to follow.
